FROM "THE NEWTON JOURNAL"-The celeby gentlemen who desire to wear a neat fitting, comfortable and durable shoe, has won its unprecedented popularity on its merits; the force of advertising would have long since spent itself had this shoe not possessed qualities here-tofore only to be had in the highest cost goods. Those who have worn this shoe are its best advertisers, and those who have not have an and from their very extensive experience gained by selling their entire production for the past four years direct to the wearer, have a great advantage over those dealers who depend upon others for the goods they offer to the public and in ascertaining the wants of their natures.

Their shoes are never sold to dealers, and they never sell a pair they do not make. GASOLINE, 15c. gal. MUDDIMAN, 614 12th st. Two-BURNER GASOLINE STOVE, $4 credit $3.50 cash. Moore & Co., 310 Pa. ave. s.e.
